

An area of our visit was with Aneta Popova in her ceramics studio. Here, I took inspiration from Kilim in order to create smaller souvenir type objects which are quick and simple to produce. With the addition of industrially finished fittings for necklaces and earrings, these hand crafted objects can be produced as giftable items which are easy to take home as reminders of Macedonia.