

„Born from earth and fire“

Inspired by the traditional water jugs, the project Stomna was created. It interprets the vessel in a contemporary way. The formal language creates a dialogue between organic and hand-made shapes. It reflects Macedonian traditions and the country's natural resources while raising questions about how a progressive future could look.

STOMNA - Philipp Hainke RESEARCH

