

MACEDONIAN TILES - Joana Schmitz

If you think of Portugal you will probably imagine colorful painted ceramic tiles. What comes to your mind if you think of Macedonia? In a time of cultural fluctuation, Macedonia is still finding its own identity. These tiles could be a suggestion. Inspired by traditional Macedonian patterns this modular tile was developed.

A further idea would be to extrude this shape into a brick. The bricks could also be useful as a room divider.

