

Zhiveli

Wen-Hsin Tu

The combination of ceramics and basket weaving in one product was inspired by the day that everybody drank Rakija together during work time. Ceramics cups and a woven bag create a portable tableware set for this cultural ritual. Additionally, the same structure could be used as a tray for use at home. The cups feature a simple graphic inspired by elements found on traditional tableware.